Swati Kainthura topped Him Jyoti School with 94.5%

Once again, Himjyoti School girls excelled in the much awaited CBSE result announced today.

All the 30 girls passed in first division with 09 girls scoring above 90%, 14 girls scored between 81-90% and the 07 girls above 72%.

This is a huge feat for the girls hailing from the remote hilly areas of Uttarakhand and Sikkim. A commendable accomplishment indeed by our sixth batch of CBSE!

Him Jyoti School, a residential school for girls, was established in the year 2005, by the then Governor of Uttarakhand, Shri Sudarshan Agarwalji, to provide free, quality education to bright girls from economically disadvantaged families.

This result is a testimony to the grit and determination of HimJyotians. Though all our girls belong to under privileged families, some have surmounted exceptional circumstances to shine.

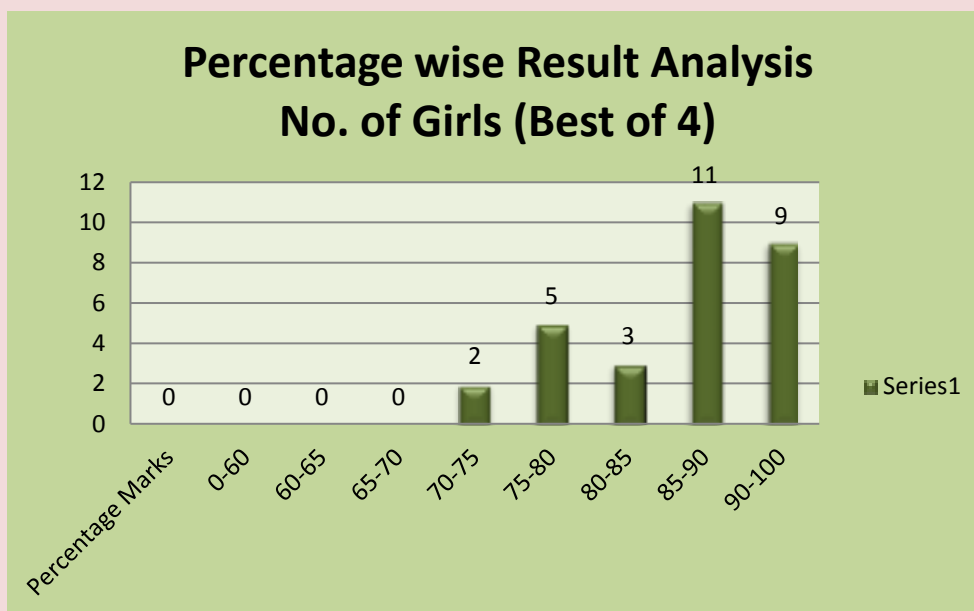

Our School topper, Swati Kainthura's father is a peon.

Priya Verma, a courageous bright girl from Tyuni, lost her father during Board exams and still managed to score a stellar 99 marks in History.
